Codicil:-

I, Albert N. Darling of Mendon in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts make this codicil to my last will heretofore made and published by me dated the first day of June A. D. 1897 which will I hereby ratify and confirm in all respects save as the same may be changed by this instrument.

Whereas by said will I gave to my son, Albert W. Darling certain devises and legacies, I hereby revoke the same and bequeath and devise all of said property real and personal given in said will to my said son, to my wife Harriet E. Darling, in trust to hold the same and pay over such a portion of the income thereof and so much or all of the principal as in her judgement may seem best, to my said son, Albert W. Darling or she may in her discretion retain the whole of said fund with the income thereof during his life.

Upon the decease of my said son the trust estate or the balance thereof then remaining in her hands to be paid to his children, if any survive him, otherwise to be divided equally among my remaining children, Julia F. Darling Florence Darling and Everett F. Darling.

I hereby give unto my said trustee full power to invest said trust funds and from time to time to change such investments as in her judgement seems best, and I request that my said trustee be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on her bond as such trustee.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be a codicil to my last will this twenty-eighth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.
